St. Theresa Catholic Church

21371 St. Theresa Lane, Ashburn, Virginia 20147

July 28, 2019 Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear Parishioners,

After writing about all the requirements for marriage here at Saint Theresa in last weekend's bulletin, it occurred to me that one might ask why they should get married in the Church at all. Of course, Marriage is a sacrament, and as such it gives to the couple who receive the sacrament the special graces to live out the vocation to married life in a world or society that make it most difficult to do so. The Church requires that all Catholics follow Church Law regarding Marriage, meaning that to remain a Catholic in good standing, one must be married in the Church or receive a dispensation from the bishop if some other arrangements are being planned. (Such dispensations are rather rare.) One must be a "Catholic in good standing" to be eligible to receive the sacraments and to serve as a sponsor for Baptism or Confirmation.

So what is one to do if he or she is in a marriage that has taken place outside the Church? Such a marriage can be "convalidated," or "blessed" by the Catholic Church. One of the priests or deacons would be more than happy to assist anyone wishing to have their current union convalidated in the Church. We have a form on the parish website to "get the ball rolling." Once we receive your request, a priest or deacon in the parish will contact the interested couple and begin the process. If you find yourself in this situation, for whatever reason, please contact us so that we can assist you in making the necessary preparations for the convalidation. We are more than happy to assist!

Sincerely in Christ, Fr. Guest
