What is Epiphany Chalk?

“Epiphany Chalk” is a Christmas tradition that’s both holy and fun. On the feast of the Epiphany, which we celebrate next Sunday, take a piece of blessed chalk and write the following over your front door:

20 + C + M + B + 23

“2023” refers to the year, of course. The letters have two different meanings, either (or both) of which are correct. The first meaning of the letters is:

C = Christus
M = Mansionem
B = Benedicat

Which means “may Christ bless this home.” In the second meaning, the letters are the initials of the three Magi who presented gifts to the Christ child in Bethlehem. Of course, we do not know their true names or their origin, but according to tradition, they are:

C = Caspar (from Europe)
M = Melchior (from Asia)
B = Balthasar (from Africa)

The custom of “chalking” your home for Epiphany comes from Eastern Europe, but has become popular all over the world. We believe that Jesus showed himself to all the nations, and is present to his people all throughout the year. Next Sunday, why not take a piece of blessed chalk and bless your home for the year? Next week, I will explain how to do it, by giving you a small “chalking” ceremony here in the bulletin that you can use at home.

God bless you...and St. Theresa, pray for us!
