If There's Another COVID Lockdown…

Msgr. Charles Pope of the Archdiocese of Washington recently published an article in the National Catholic Register about how to respond to the threat of a second COVID lockdown. I thought his ideas were spot-on, and worthy of wider distribution. That's why I'd like to summarize his main points for you this week. In the event of another lockdown…

•Priests and laity alike should proactively resist the shuttering of our churches. We should be prepared to make legal appeals to the highest level, if necessary. We should insist that gatherings in churches, with safety protocols presumed, are essential to the free exercise of religion—a basic right given by God and protected by the First Amendment.

•Priests and laity alike should pressure the bishops to demand clear evidence from government authorities that church gatherings are a significant cause of COVID spread. Churches have done a great deal already to enact safety protocols, and deserve the presumption that they are safe places to gather. We should work together with Protestant and Jewish houses of worship, in this regard.

•Bishops should insist that churches should not be equated with bars and restaurants, where people sit close and engage in face-to-face conversation. Church attendance—sitting in pews, socially distanced, wearing masks, with very little personal interaction—is fundamentally safer than many other venues where attendance is not restricted.

•Bishops should assert that public worship is essential to public well-being. Government officials have declared liquor stores, among other things, to be essential to the public. How much more essential is one's relationship with God, especially in such trying times?

•If every legal approach fails and churches are forced to cease public gatherings, bishops should allow priests vast leeway in dispensing the sacraments in smaller settings. Bishops should not only allow, but encourage priests to find creative ways to offer sacraments to parishioners within legal restrictions, such as allowing regular Masses for a limited number of people, as well as offering communion to others who may pass through the Church at a given time. Mass should always be offered publicly, in some fashion or another.

•Priests should limit the encouragement of "spiritual communion." Spiritual communion is helpful only for those who cannot receive communion any other way. The Church can offer communion outside of Mass. We do it all the time for serious reasons, such as sick calls and hospital visits.

•Churches should stay open for private prayers and devotions. A locked church is a countersign and delivers the message, "We are not here for you now in this crisis." Our physical health is not more important than our spiritual health.

If there's another COVID lockdown, we must work together to prevent churches from closing again. Please take these points to heart, and strive to implement them wherever God bless you…and St. Theresa, pray for us!

Fr. Hudgins

Tricked – A video-based safe-training program that explores the dangerous realities of sexual trafficking. Upper Room Squad will be showing the movie 'Tricked: Inside the World of Teen Sex Trafficking' on Sunday, December 6th at 6pm in the school gymnasium. The desks will be 6 feet part and we are asking students to wear masks. This is a part of the Youth Training Program established by the Diocese. While parents are the primary educators and caregivers of youth, the Diocese of Arlington enjoys the privilege of sharing in that ministry, in the world we live in today, youth too often are alone and unprepared for the dangers presented. This movie will help students understand and spot the scouting and manipulating techniques that are commonly used by traffickers. Using testimony from survivors of sex trafficking, as well as insider information from a former trafficker, we talk about how to avoid susceptible behaviors. We also provide insights on how to get help if students or their friends get trapped in this terrible situation. To get more information on the program just visit the Arlington Diocese webpage under 'Protecting our Children', follow the 'Youth Training Programs' tab, www.arlingtondiocese.org/ChildProtection/Youth-Training-Programs/. (the make-up date will be Tuesday, December 8th at 6pm in the school library)

Monetary Donations
Your donations help us to make a difference in the lives of those who are close to eviction or utility disconnection. There are many families who are suffering financially due to COVID 19. Please help us to help those in need. The funds also help us to purchase beds for those moving out of shelter or sleeping on the floor and cribs for newborns. No donation is too small. Even a dollar makes a difference. You can donate by giving online, or by mail or drop off to the parish office. Please indicate DMO in the memo of the check or on the envelope. Go to the parish website http://www.saintttheresaparish.com and click on Donate tab to make a monetary donation online! Thank you for helping us to bring Christ's love to others by helping them in their time of need. Many thanks to all who have already donated. God bless you!
