February 2, 2020 The Presentation of the Lord

Dear Parishioners,

Tomorrow, February 3rd, is the Memorial of Saint Blaise. Throats will be blessed following the two morning Masses. Children in our school, and those who have RE on Mondays, will have their throats blessed during class. It is said that as he was being led to his execution, Saint Blaise interceded on behalf of a child who was choking on a bone and the child lived. Practically since then we have invoked the prayers of Saint Blaise to protect us from diseases or ailments of the throat. The priest or deacon offers the blessing with the following words: "Through the intercession of Saint Blaise, bishop and martyr, may God deliver you from every disease of the throat and from every other illness. In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit."

Many of you have noticed light coming from the new rectory (on Shale Ridge). We finally have power and it looks like we will be able to move in about a month's time. I am grateful for your prayerful -- and obviously, financial support -- of this venture. We are looking forward to the move -- though I have to admit I am a bit anxious about the idea of organizing an entire household to move. If I have learned one thing, it is that it is a great time to "purge" and simplify my life. You sure can gather a lot of clutter... But cleaning is a lot like Confession -- it feels almost as good throwing things away as it does to get rid of sins!

I know that you have seen some ads for next weekend's Chili Cook-Off. This is a great benefit that will help support our high schoolers' participation in the diocesan Work Camp this June. Work Camp is something of a tradition in the diocese: each year a contingent of teens from almost every parish in the diocese converge on a high school in a county somewhere in the diocese to assist less fortunate homeowners with household repairs that they may be unable to do themselves. Sometimes the teens are putting on a new roof, or building a wheelchair ramp, or replacing windows, or... It is a great opportunity for the teens to serve the less fortunate -- and right here in our own diocese. In addition, each day the young people participate in Mass and other spiritual activities. Please consider supporting the cook-off -- or if you are not able to attend, perhaps making a donation to Work Camp.

Sincerely in Christ, Fr Guest

Exciting news! STCS 8th grader Austin Baron is one of ten students across the country to receive the National Catholic Educational Association's (NCEA) Youth Virtues, Valor & Vision Award! The award recognizes Catholic middle and high school students who demonstrate an extraordinary commitment to service and social justice. For the past few years, Austin has been making dog toys to raise funds to fight global hunger. He has collected enough donations for the toys to provide 13,000 meals through the parish Youth vs. Hunger event to date. Arlington Diocese Catholic Schools Superintendent Dr. Vorbach and representatives from the NCEA and Cross Catholic Outreach presented the award to Austin following our all-school Mass to celebrate the start of Catholic Schools Week.

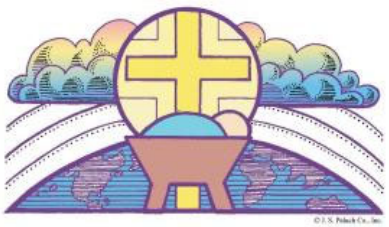

Thank you to all parishioners who participated in our Catholic Schools Week Donut Sunday, Open House and Day of Giving for STCS. We are grateful for the support of our parish!

The Presentation of the Lord

Today's feast is both magnificent and mysterious: magnificent because the very first contemporaries of Jesus begin to recognize him as Christ, the anointed Savior of the world; mysterious, because this King is still a child, an obscure boy obedient to his earthly parents. The prophet Malachi—living and dying before the coming of Christ—points toward the arrival of the Messiah and encourages God's people to prepare themselves by living generous, holy lives. The Letter to the Hebrews—written after Jesus' ministry, death, and resurrection—renews the prophetic call to holiness, reminding us that the Lord will always help us: "Because he himself was tested through what he suffered, he is able to help those who are being tested." The Gospel reading overflows with examples of joyful men and women living God's call to holiness. Mary, Joseph, Simeon, and Anna show us, in their own ways, how to love Christ.

WHY IS IT
A man wakes up after sleeping under an ADVERTISED blanket on an ADVERTISED mattress and pulls off ADVERTISED pajamas bathes in an ADVERTISED shower shaves with an ADVERTISED razor brushes his teeth
with ADVERTISED toothpaste washes with ADVERTISED soap puts on ADVERTISED clothes drinks a cup of ADVERTISED coffee
drives to work
in an ADVERTISED car
and then . . . .
refuses to ADVERTISE
believing it doesn't pay.
Later if business is poor
he ADVERTISES it for sale.
WHY IS IT?
