JMJ

Dear Parishioners of St. Theresa, allow me to briefly introduce myself; I am Deacon Matt Noah, ordained a Permanent Deacon on Feb 20th, and assigned to this parish. Some of you know me quite well but I know many others have never heard of me until last week. I look forward to meeting you all in the future and am humbled and honored that Bishop Burbidge appointed me to serve Christ here in Ashburn.

First off, let me say that it is great to be back at my home parish. I first joined St. Theresa's in 1993 when we were meeting at Broad Run High School. I went through RCIA class, taught by Msgr. McMurtrie, and entered the Church in December of 1994. Up until I was assigned to Christ the Redeemer for my last year of formation, St. Theresa's was the only parish I had ever been a member of! At various times over the years, I have taught CCD, RCIA, sang in the Choir, been an adult leader and a contractor for WorkCamp, and am a Third-Degree Knight of Columbus.

My wife, Carole, and I will celebrate our 35th wedding anniversary this August. We were blessed to have three children, Nick (30), Kelly (25), and one whom is in heaven praying for us. Nick is a software programmer and lives in Atlanta, GA with his wife and two children, Parker (3) and Easton (1). Kelly lives in Ashburn and is a SPED teacher for LCPS.

I am originally from New Paltz, NY – a hippie town in the Hudson Valley – and was a Naval Officer from 1983-1987, back when all the US had to worry about were the Soviets. I have a BS in Chemical Engineering from Clarkson University (as does Carole) and a MS in Software Engineering from George Mason. I currently work in IT but will happily retire this summer. My second career will be being a Deacon; I am so looking forward to devoting myself to my ministry, and to my wife of course.

My hobbies include fly-fishing, wargaming (it is even geekier than it sounds), reading, baseball, hiking, and camping. I also enjoy asking Fr. Barnes how the Nats are doing the day after the NY Mets beat them. I look forward to serving you. May God bless you with the wisdom to know His will for you, the humility to accept it, and the courage and strength to do it.

IC XC NIKA,
Deacon Noah

In the Incarnation, the Son of God comes to exist as a man and suffers and dies on the cross. It is this salvific suffering that frees humankind of sin and death, and in the bodily resurrection offers to humankind eternal life. But does God, in His divinity, suffer along with us? Join Fr. Weinandy as he explores the union of natures in Christ and what it means for our salvation.

Keep up to date on our charitable works and upcoming events: Council website: www.st-louismartin-kofc.org. Facebook: www.facebook.com/Council15256. Twitter: https://twitter.com/Council15256. Interested in learning about the Knights of Columbus? Read-up on our most Frequently Asked Questions at https://www.st-louismartin-kofc.org/faqs

Why become a Knight? We challenge the world's status quo with the Good News of Jesus Christ. We share His unlimited Love and unfathomable Mercy with everyone. We support our Church, help our local community, and defend all life, especially those most vulnerable. We encourage each brother knight to grow in their Faith. We aspire to become better husbands, fathers, sons, and brothers. We want to be like Jesus. We want to bring the entire world to Our Heavenly Father.

Despite a pandemic, we have donated over $5,000 to the parish's ministry to the less fortunate. We helped renovate Serenity House, the first shelter in Loudoun County for women recovering from drug and alcohol dependency. We have also collected over 30,000 lbs. of food for the Leesburg Food Pantry this past year. That is over $45,000 worth of food. And that is just the beginning.

If you have any questions, contact our Grand Knight directly at gk15256@vakofc.org.
