St. Theresa Catholic Church

21371 St. Theresa Lane, Ashburn, Virginia 20147

March 22, 2020 Fourth Sunday of Lent

Dear Parishioners,

Who would have ever thought? These days are like none that most of us have ever seen. No public Mass? Unheard of – or so we thought. And yet it makes us realize how very blessed we are. It has broken my heart to have to inform you all that you cannot assist at Holy Mass and receive our Blessed Lord in Holy Communion. We pray that our Lord would bring this current health crisis to a swift close so that we might all be able to celebrate the Holy Eucharist together again – soon.

I know that we have all wondered about things like our Holy Week celebrations and First Communions, etc. Right now, I think it would be foolish of me to venture to even guess how all of this will play out. We will do our best to get information on our website as it become available to us. We are currently using some of the "downtime" in the offices to update our records. Some of you may be receiving a phone call or email from a staff member as we try to make our records more current – and even add email addresses to registrations that were made before email even existed! Your cooperation is most appreciated.

What is most important at this time is that we hold fast to our Faith. It is the one true constant in our lives. We can always be certain of God's love and his mercy. Know that your priests continue to offer private Masses and that you are in our prayers. Together – in the love of Christ – we will overcome this trial, as we have overcome so many others in our history and in our own lives. May God bless us all!

Sincerely in Christ,

Spiritual Recommendations for St. Theresa Parish

Let nothing disturb you,
Let nothing frighten you,
All things are passing away:
God never changes.
Patience obtains all things Whoever has God lacks nothing;
God alone suffices.
~Prayer of St. Theresa of Avila

General Advice
•Given the current circumstances, there are still good spiritual practices and disciplines that we can undertake to grow in holiness
—This is an important time to put our trust in the Lord
•Each of us still represents the Church as a Catholic. We should be good examples to others and encourage fellow Catholics to continue practicing our faith
•Offer all sacrifices and suffering during this time to the Lord for the salvation of souls
•Check in frequently with family members and friends
—Offer help to family, friends and neighbors if there is something that can be done •Maintaining body health is consistent with our faith.
—Please exercise all due precautions and take appropriate measures to protect personal health and the health of other people.
•There are many other resources, besides what is listed here, which can also be helpful.

Schedule
•As a suggestion, set aside a specific time or times each day to say prayers or perform spiritual activities
•As best as possible, try to keep Sunday holy by doing at least some prayers and spiritual practices
•Pray each morning and evening, even short prayers
•Prayers before and after meals
•The Angelus
—A traditional prayer offered at 6am, 12Noon, and 6pm
—Could be prayed at least once per day or at any time
—https://www.ewtn.com/catholicism/devotions/angelus-383 •Practice good discipline
—Set daily goals or expectations
•Avoid squandering or merely wasting a lot of time when in its place we could do something worthwhile

Teaching on Mass attendance
•It is not a sin on anyone's part that public Masses are not being offered. When Masses are once again held publicly, no one will need to confess missing Mass as a sin during this period of time.
•While extraordinary, perhaps a good way to think about not being able to attend Mass would be akin to someone being deployed in the military. Sometimes military service personnel do not have access to a Catholic Chaplain through no fault of their own and therefore cannot attend Mass.
•All parishioners are still being prayed for by parish priests at private Masses. Even though no one is allowed to presently attend, the Masses are still being offered and provide tremendous grace to everyone.

Continue to follow the Mass
•App on phone called ibreviary that has daily Mass readings, Mass prayers, and the Liturgy of the Hours —Liturgy of the Hours is the universal prayer of the Church offered throughout the world. These are prayers all priests and religious continue to offer each day.
—Anyone can say some or all of these prayers. There are five "hours" in the day. Office of Readings, Morning Prayer, Daytime Prayer (has three possible times, midmorning, midday, and midafternoon), Evening Prayer, and Night Prayer •Magnificat. This is a print publication but can also be obtained in a digital format. It has many of the above prayers and includes reflections.
•USCCB (United States Conference of Catholic Bishops). They have access to the daily Mass readings
•Bishop Burbidge will be showing video of Sunday Mass. See the Arlington Diocese website •EWTN. This is a Catholic cable station that shows Mass each day and has other religious programs

Spiritual Communion
•For a variety of reasons, it is not always possible to attend Mass and receive Holy Communion through no fault of a person. It does not replace going to Mass but covers circumstances like our current time.
•Many saints have undertaken this practice, and it is encouraged as a general practice in any situation. This can be prayed at any time of the day and in any place. As a devotion, it can be done every day, not just on Sundays.
•"My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things, and I desire to receive you into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen."

Renewed Gratitude for Mass
•This period of time offers a chance to be thankful for the great gift of Mass. Under normal circumstances, Masses in our area are made abundantly available. We can grow, during this time, in gratitude for the gift of gathering around the Lord's altar.
•While attending Mass on Sundays is an obligation (under normal conditions), it is even more so a gift that we can appreciate more deeply, especially when Masses one day resume normally.

Reading Scripture
•In addition to the daily Mass readings, read passages from the Gospel about Jesus healing the sick. It was an extremely important part of His public ministry.
•The Gospel of Matthew is full of accounts where Jesus healed countless individuals.
•James 5:14-15

Continue Lenten Practices
•We can continue whatever Lenten practices we set out to do at the start of Lent. Some of them might no longer be possible. However, we also have the chance to do something else that is now possible.
•No meat on Fridays
•Fasting on Good Friday (April 10)

Stations of the Cross
•This practice is traditionally done on Fridays during Lent but can be done anytime. It can be prayed as a family or as an individual at home.
•This is the version that we pray as a parish https://www.ecatholic2000.com/liguori/stations/cross.shtml

•Formed (see below under digital formats) and other websites have possible versions of the Stations of the Cross to pray

Rosary and Chaplet of Divine Mercy
•The rosary is a powerful prayer that can be prayed as individuals or in small groups.
—There is a strong tradition of praying to Mary for protection and help in grave times of need •Chaplet of Divine Mercy

•Other prayers for protection
—St. Michael the Archangel

Praying Act of Contrition
•This can be done every day to ask for the forgiveness of our sins, especially in circumstances where confession is not possible
•O my God, I am heartily sorry for having offended you. And I detest all my sins because of your just punishments. But most of all because they offend you, my God, who are all good and deserving of all my love. I firmly resolve with the help of your grace to sin no more and to avoid the near occasion of sin. Amen.

How to baptize in case of emergency
•In the event that a person is in danger of death and requires Baptism, even though the normal minister of Baptism is a bishop, priest, or deacon, any person who has reached the age of reason (age 7) can baptize someone.
•Pour water three times saying, "Name (person being baptized), I baptize you in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit."

Renew our Baptismal Promises
•I renew my baptismal vows, I renounce Satan and all his works and all his promises. I take Jesus Christ for my model and guide and I promise to be faithful to Him unto the end of my life. Amen.

Spiritual Reading, Videos, and Digital Formats
•Books and other resources available from Dynamic Catholic (website) •Wordonfire.org
—See Resources where they have videos and books to read •Formed.org
—St. Theresa Parish has a subscription made available to all parishioners. Sign in using our parish zip code (20147).

Guidance for families with children preparing for first Holy Communion and Confirmation
•First Confessions were already completed for those preparing for first Holy Communion
•Keep up current studies from school and RE classes
•First Holy Communion
—Continue to teach children how to properly receive Holy Communion, what the Eucharist is, the Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus Christ, and why it is sacred
—There are many good resources on Formed, Dynamic Catholic, and Word on Fire to consider •Confirmation
—Besides the above suggestions, there is a prep-sheet, under Religious Education and Confirmation, on the parish website to continue to study for the eventual confirmation interview with one of the priests

Feast Days, Holy Week, and Easter •Lent has two feast days that we ought to celebrate or remember with some greater appreciation.
—Solemnity of St. Joseph—March 19
—Solemnity of the Annunciation of the Lord—March 25
Lenten practices are dispensed on these two solemnities
•Holy Week—Palm Sunday April 5, Holy Thursday April 9, Good Friday April 10, Easter Sunday April 12

As you all know, public celebrations of the Mass are not taking place in the Diocese of Arlington until further notice. Bishop Burbidge has also dispensed all the faithful of the Diocese from the obligation to attend Sunday Mass and holy days of obligation while public Masses are suspended.

There are, however, many ways in which you can grow in faith during this challenging time as the coronavirus spreads. Many parishes are facilitating a live stream or recording of daily and Sunday Mass. Some priests are offering spiritual reflections on social media.

Especially on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation, the faithful are encouraged to devote time to prayer, observe Mass on television or the internet, and pray the Rosary, along with other devotions.

Prayer to Jesus for Healing and Guidance Jesus, Son of God.
you were sent by the Father
to bear our weakness;
be with us in this time of crisis.

Merciful Savior,
heal and comfort the sick,
so that, with health restored,
they may give you praise.

Divine Physician,
accompany our caregivers
so that, serving with patience,
they may heal wisely.

Eternal Wisdom,
guide our leaders
so that, seeking remedies,
they may follow your light.

Christ, the Anointed,
protect us in body and spirit,
so that, freed from harm,
we may be delivered from all affliction.

Who live and reign with God the Father in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, forever and ever.

Amen.

Light

"Awake, O sleeper, and arise from the dead, and Christ will give you light" (Ephesians 5:14). We are at the midpoint of our Lenten journey of conversion. As always, God never gives up on us, especially those who have "fallen asleep" along the road to conversion. The most powerful stories of conversion are proclaimed during these final weeks of Lent. They have the power to shake us out of our sleep. Today's Gospel story of the healing of the man born blind exposes the real blindness in the time of Christ—the blindness of the self-righteous religious leaders. In a few weeks, at the Easter Vigil, the Church will proclaim "Christ our Light" as the paschal candle is carried into darkened churches throughout the world. May the darkness of sin that still pervades our lives, communities, and world, be dispelled by the Christ who comes to bring sight to the blind and light to the world.

Ways to Help

Some have asked what they can do or how to help so I want to let folks know of ways they can help during this difficult time we are all experiencing. Here are a few ways to help.

Assisting Catholic Charities:

•Another alternative. Shop Amazon https://www.amazon.com/gp/registry/wishlist/O36HJ5Y74CBH/ref=bnav_topnav_lists_2

•Checks and gift cards should be sent to Catholic Charities, 316 E. Market Street, Leesburg, VA 20176

•Consider volunteering (anyone 18 years of age or older) at the Catholic Charities pantry to package up bags of food to be donated to families. They have established a "no-contact distribution system so that clients and volunteers do not interface except over a table. The clients drive up, present their ID, and they give them prepackaged bags of food based on the family size. They need help in packaging these bags -- if you or any family member can give a few hours, it would be greatly appreciated. Please send contact information to Christina Harrington at Christina.harrington@ccda.net. She will contact you to arrange a mutually agreeable time and day(s). Most of their current volunteers are in the highest risk groups and are taking a hiatus from the pantry.

Assisting at the parish level:

•Consider online donations to assist families who have already been impacted and need help with rent and utilities. It is come to my attention that although utilities aren't being cut off the late fees are still being applied. www.saintttheresaparish.com under DONATE. Your donation makes a big difference in another's life!

•Donations of non-perishable food items and paper products can be dropped off inside the first door to the admin/school building. Indicate DMO on the bag. Cooking oil, white rice, spaghetti sauce, pancake mix/ Bisquick and syrup, canned fruits and vegetables, toilet paper, paper towels, dish soap, diapers size 1.

Friends in Need- Another way to help this Lent:
Provides meals on a short term basis for those families or individuals in the parish who are unable to cook for themselves due to illness or a medical situation in the immediate family, arrival of a new baby…Contact Emily Wilsey at emwilsey@aol.com or 703.585.5435 to volunteer to make meals or if you or a loved one are in need of help with meals.

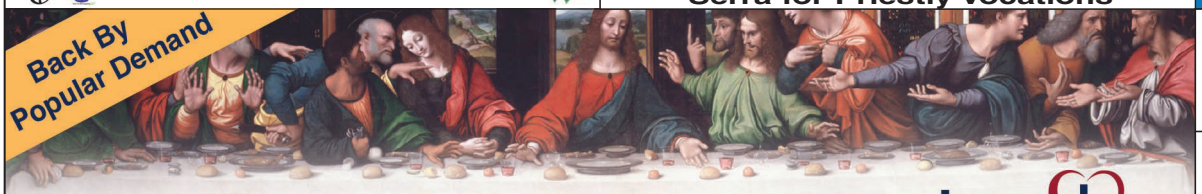

Please support this fundraiser as we need proceeds from this more now than ever!

Car Raffle
All Saints Church (Manassas, VA) has invited our parishioners to participate again in their 5-car raffle. Prizes include five 2020 vehicles from Koons of Manassas (Honda Civic, Buick Encore, GMC Canyon Truck, Honda CRV Sport Utility and Honda Odyssey Van). One $5.00 ticket offers the purchaser a chance to win all five vehicles plus $20,000 in cash prizes. Divine Mercy Outreach receives proceeds from what is sold through our church. Last year $38,000. was raised to help the less fortunate in Loudoun County. Drawing is on April 25th. All ticket stubs must be returned to All Saints and be post marked April 21st for guaranteed entry. Questions? Contact Loan Jella at dmoassistant@saintttheresaparish.com

WHY IS IT
A man wakes up after sleeping under an ADVERTISED blanket on an ADVERTISED mattress and pulls off ADVERTISED pajamas bathes in an ADVERTISED shower
shaves with an ADVERTISED razor brushes his teeth
with ADVERTISED toothpaste
washes with ADVERTISED soap puts on ADVERTISED clothes drinks a cup of ADVERTISED coffee drives to work in an ADVERTISED car and then . . . .
refuses to ADVERTISE
believing it doesn't pay.
Later if business is poor
he ADVERTISES it for sale.
