St. Theresa Catholic Church

21371 St. Theresa Lane, Ashburn, Virginia 20147

May 24, 2020 The Ascension of the Lord

Dear Parishioners,

Hopefully we will begin returning to some sense of normal next weekend. We have been working closely with the diocese to institute a safe plan for coming to church for Mass. That said, we need everyone's cooperation – and those who are more "at risk" due to age or medical condition should still consider remaining at home. The bishop continues to dispense all those at risk as well as those who may care for the sick or have particular concerns for their own health.

The bishop has asked that we encourage you to prayerfully consider receiving Holy Communion in the hand and wearing a mask. We will have seating in every other pew to assist with social distancing recommendations and we will be spraying surfaces in between Masses. Hymnals are being removed from the pews – I have asked our musicians to select hymns that are familiar to everyone. If anyone has concerns about their safety at Mass, they should not attend until they are comfortable doing so.

On another note, some may have read that Saint Theresa was named "Best Place to Worship" in Ashburn Magazine. I am told that 5,400 voters participated in this polling. Thanks to all who voted for the parish – and thanks to all of you who help make our parish the best place to worship in Ashburn.

Sincerely in Christ,

The Ascension of the Lord

The key to unlocking the scriptures is in Paul's letter to the Ephesians as we pray, "May the eyes of your hearts be enlightened." People see and hear things but simply have a hard time believing they are true. In our first reading from the very beginning of the Acts of the Apostles, Luke starts where his Gospel left off—the ascension of Jesus. For as long as Jesus spent preparing the disciples, they were still foggy about what was happening, and spent time staring at the sky wondering where he went. In today's Gospel, the disciples still doubt Jesus to the very last minute. In the letter to the Ephesians, Paul speaks to the new Christian community, but could be preaching to each of us in the pews as he says, "I can explain it to you, but I can't make you believe. This is where faith comes in." May we all pray for the gift of enlightenment today!

Spiritual Recommendations for St. Theresa Parish

Let nothing disturb you,
Let nothing frighten you,
All things are passing away:
God never changes.
Patience obtains all things Whoever has God lacks nothing;
God alone suffices.
~Prayer of St. Theresa of Avila

General Advice
•Given the current circumstances, there are still good spiritual practices and disciplines that we can undertake to grow in holiness
—This is an important time to put our trust in the Lord
•Each of us still represents the Church as a Catholic. We should be good examples to others and encourage fellow Catholics to continue practicing our faith
•Offer all sacrifices and suffering during this time to the Lord for the salvation of souls
•Check in frequently with family members and friends
—Offer help to family, friends and neighbors if there is something that can be done •Maintaining body health is consistent with our faith.
—Please exercise all due precautions and take appropriate measures to protect personal health and the health of other people.
•There are many other resources, besides what is listed here, which can also be helpful.

Schedule
•As a suggestion, set aside a specific time or times each day to say prayers or perform spiritual activities
•As best as possible, try to keep Sunday holy by doing at least some prayers and spiritual practices
•Pray each morning and evening, even short prayers
•Prayers before and after meals
•The Angelus
—A traditional prayer offered at 6am, 12Noon, and 6pm
—Could be prayed at least once per day or at any time
—https://www.ewtn.com/catholicism/devotions/angelus-383
•Practice good discipline
—Set daily goals or expectations
•Avoid squandering or merely wasting a lot of time when in its place we could do something worthwhile

Teaching on Mass attendance
•It is not a sin on anyone's part that public Masses are not being offered. When Masses are once again held publicly, no one will need to confess missing Mass as a sin during this period of time.
•While extraordinary, perhaps a good way to think about not being able to attend Mass would be akin to someone being deployed in the military. Sometimes military service personnel do not have access to a Catholic Chaplain through no fault of their own and therefore cannot attend Mass.
•All parishioners are still being prayed for by parish priests at private Masses. Even though no one is allowed to presently attend, the Masses are still being offered and provide tremendous grace to everyone.

Continue to follow the Mass
•App on phone called ibreviary that has daily Mass readings, Mass prayers, and the Liturgy of the Hours —Liturgy of the Hours is the universal prayer of the Church offered throughout the world. These are prayers all priests and religious continue to offer each day.
—Anyone can say some or all of these prayers. There are five "hours" in the day. Office of Readings, Morning Prayer, Daytime Prayer (has three possible times, midmorning, midday, and midafternoon), Evening Prayer, and Night Prayer •Magnificat. This is a print publication but can also be obtained in a digital format. It has many of the above prayers and includes reflections.
•USCCB (United States Conference of Catholic Bishops). They have access to the daily Mass readings
•Bishop Burbidge will be showing video of Sunday Mass. See the Arlington Diocese website
•EWTN. This is a Catholic cable station that shows Mass each day and has other religious programs

Spiritual Communion
•For a variety of reasons, it is not always possible to attend Mass and receive Holy Communion through no fault of a person. It does not replace going to Mass but covers circumstances like our current time.
•Many saints have undertaken this practice, and it is encouraged as a general practice in any situation. This can be prayed at any time of the day and in any place. As a devotion, it can be done every day, not just on Sundays.
•"My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things, and I desire to receive you into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen."

Renewed Gratitude for Mass
•This period of time offers a chance to be thankful for the great gift of Mass. Under normal circumstances, Masses in our area are made abundantly available. We can grow, during this time, in gratitude for the gift of gathering around the Lord's altar.
•While attending Mass on Sundays is an obligation (under normal conditions), it is even more so a gift that we can appreciate more deeply, especially when Masses one day resume normally.

Reading Scripture
•In addition to the daily Mass readings, read passages from the Gospel about Jesus healing the sick. It was an extremely important part of His public ministry.
•The Gospel of Matthew is full of accounts where Jesus healed countless individuals.
•James 5:14-15

Praying Act of Contrition
•This can be done every day to ask for the forgiveness of our sins, especially in circumstances where confession is not possible
•O my God, I am heartily sorry for having offended you. And I detest all my sins because of your just punishments. But most of all because they offend you, my God, who are all good and deserving of all my love. I firmly resolve with the help of your grace to sin no more and to avoid the near occasion of sin. Amen.

How to baptize in case of emergency
•In the event that a person is in danger of death and requires Baptism, even though the normal minister of Baptism is a bishop, priest, or deacon, any person who has reached the age of reason (age 7) can baptize someone.
•Pour water three times saying, "Name (person being baptized), I baptize you in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit."

Renew our Baptismal Promises
•I renew my baptismal vows, I renounce Satan and all his works and all his promises. I take Jesus Christ for my model and guide and I promise to be faithful to Him unto the end of my life. Amen.

Spiritual Reading, Videos, and Digital Formats
•Books and other resources available from Dynamic Catholic (website)
•Wordonfire.org
—See Resources where they have videos and books to read •Formed.org
—St. Theresa Parish has a subscription made available to all parishioners. Sign in using our parish zip code (20147).

Guidance for families with children preparing for first Holy Communion and Confirmation
•First Confessions were already completed for those preparing for first Holy Communion
•Keep up current studies from school and RE classes
•First Holy Communion
—Continue to teach children how to properly receive Holy Communion, what the Eucharist is, the Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus Christ, and why it is sacred
—There are many good resources on Formed, Dynamic Catholic, and Word on Fire to consider •Confirmation
—Besides the above suggestions, there is a prep-sheet, under Religious Education and Confirmation, on the parish website to continue to study for the eventual confirmation interview with one of the priests

"Pushed" Out On Mission

There is a delightful character in the original Dr. Dolittle Tales called the "Pushmi-Pullyu." It is a beast with two identical halves, with a head at each end. No matter which direction the beast walks, one end is the "push me" and the other is the "pull you." Today's feast is a bit like that in the life of the church. In the book of the Acts of the Apostles, it is the ascension of Christ that calls for the Holy Spirit, which consequently sends or "pushes" the church out on its mission. This is the message that we hear from the angels today as they tell the friends of Jesus not to look up into the clouds, but to get busy. It is the message of Jesus himself in Matthew's Gospel, as he sends them out to baptize. He also tells them, "I am with you always, until the end of the age" (Matthew 28:20). And it is this message, confident in faith that Jesus has ascended to shouts of joy, that "pulls" us along to our final destiny. The life of the faithful disciple, sent into the world on mission, will one day know the same risen, ascended glory.

As you all know, public celebrations of the Mass are not taking place in the Diocese of Arlington until further notice. Bishop Burbidge has also dispensed all the faithful of the Diocese from the obligation to attend Sunday Mass and holy days of obligation while public Masses are suspended.

There are, however, many ways in which you can grow in faith during this challenging time as the coronavirus spreads. Many parishes are facilitating a live stream or recording of daily and Sunday Mass. Some priests are offering spiritual reflections on social media.

Especially on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation, the faithful are encouraged to devote time to prayer, observe Mass on television or the internet, and pray the Rosary, along with other devotions.

DIVINE MERCY OUTREACH

Learn more, visit
www.saintttheresaparish.com

Thank you to all those who participated in the raffle or sent donations in lieu of the car raffle. Our proceeds this year were $32,000. These funds are very important as the consignment sale was canceled this spring due to COVID. We certainly miss those proceeds, especially with all the needs out there.

Thank you to all those who are dropping off food donations and making monetary donations online or mailing them to the office. Every bit counts!

Your funds are going to good use. This is just a brief update to let you know how outreach is reaching out. We've assisted with over $40,000 in rent and utilities since January. (We are also assisting Catholic Charities and Loudoun Cares who are distributing a grant and need further assistance to help families and individuals with rent.) Our bed ministry has been working to make sure families have beds to sleep on. Our costs this year have been over $13,000. not including cribs or bedding.

Thank you for making a difference in lives of those in our community. Just to share- there have been many tears of joy and appreciation from families. They are so thankful.

You Can Help- Give hope to others

Donations for outreach accepted online at the parish website www.saintttheresaparish.com under "Donate"
or you can mail donations to the parish office.
Please put to the attention of Divine Mercy Outreach.
Thank you. God bless you and stay safe!

A man wakes up after sleeping
under an ADVERTISED blanket on an ADVERTISED mattress and pulls off ADVERTISED pajamas
bathes in an ADVERTISED shower
shaves with an ADVERTISED razor
brushes his teeth
with ADVERTISED toothpaste
washes with ADVERTISED soap puts on ADVERTISED clothes
drinks a cup of ADVERTISED coffee
drives to work in an ADVERTISED car
and then . . . .
refuses to ADVERTISE
believing it doesn't pay.
Later if business is poor
he ADVERTISES it for sale.
WHY IS IT?
