An Ancient Commentary on Christians, from a Second Century Author

"Christians are no different from other men either by nationality, language, or customs. They have no separate cities of their own, nor speak a strange language, nor follow a life marked by any curiosity. With regard to clothing, food, and manner of life in general, they follow the customs of wherever they happen to be living.

And yet there is something extraordinary about their lives. They live in their own countries as though they were only passing through. They play their full duty as citizens, but endure everything as if they were foreigners. Any country can be their homeland, but that homeland, wherever it may be, is a foreign country. Like others, they marry and have children, but they do not destroy their offspring. They share a common meal, but not a common bed.

They live in the flesh, but they are not governed by the desires of the flesh. They pass their days upon earth, but are citizens of heaven. Obedient to every law, they live on a level that transcends the law. Christians love all men, but all men persecute them. They are condemned because they are misunderstood. They live in poverty, but enrich many; they are totally destitute, but possess an abundance of everything. They suffer dishonor, but that is their glory. They are reviled, but justified. A blessing is their answer to abuse, kindness their response to insult. For doing good, they are punished as evildoers, but even then they rejoice. They are attacked and persecuted by all, but no one can explain the reason for this hatred.

To sum it all up: what the soul is to the body, Christians are to the world. As the soul is present in every part of the body, so Christians are in every part of the world. The soul lives in the body, but is not of the body. Christians live in the world, but are not of the world. The body hates the soul and wars against it, not because of any injury the soul has done it, but because of the restriction the soul places on its pleasures. Similarly, the world hates Christians, not because they have done it any wrong, but because they have renounced its pleasures.

Christians love those who hate them just as the soul loves the body and all its members despite the body's hatred. Just as the soul holds the body together, Christians hold the world together. The soul, though immortal, has a mortal dwelling place; and Christians also live for a time amidst perishable things, while awaiting the eternal home that will be theirs in heaven. As the soul benefits from the deprivation of food and drink, so Christians flourish under persecution. This is the Christian's lofty and divinely appointed mission, and they will not abandon their posts."

Just one question to ponder—could the same be said about you, in the world today?

God bless you…and St. Theresa, pray for us!

Fr. Hudgins

St. Theresa Wedding Coordinator Ministry
We are looking to put together a Team of Coordinators to help in this ministry. Our Ministry is designed to serve our priests and to help those couples having their ceremonies at St. Theresa. No experience necessary. Duties would involve being on sight and giving guidance for Rehearsals and Day of Ceremony; preferably a Team of 2 for the same ceremony. Rehearsals are usually set for the evening before and run no longer than one (1) hour. Simple Ceremonies are one (1) hour; a Nuptial Mass is one and a half (1.5) hours. On Sight Coordinators usually arrive one (1) hour before ceremony begins and stay about 30 minutes after ceremony. Ceremonies are held on Fridays and/or Saturdays.
More details/information for anyone interested. Preferably 18years and older. Please contact Robin Lillis at: rmlillis@gmail.com or 703.729.5003.

Teaching on Mass attendance
•While extraordinary, perhaps a good way to think about not being able to attend Mass would be akin to someone being deployed in the military. Sometimes military service personnel do not have access to a Catholic Chaplain through no fault of their own and therefore cannot attend Mass.
•All parishioners are still being prayed for by parish priests at private Masses. Even though no one is allowed to presently attend, the Masses are still being offered and provide tremendous grace to everyone.

Continue to follow the Mass
•App on phone called ibreviary that has daily Mass readings, Mass prayers, and the Liturgy of the Hours
—Liturgy of the Hours is the universal prayer of the Church offered throughout the world. These are prayers all priests and religious continue to offer each day.
—Anyone can say some or all of these prayers. There are five "hours" in the day. Office of Readings, Morning Prayer, Daytime Prayer (has three possible times, midmorning, midday, and midafternoon), Evening Prayer, and Night Prayer
•Magnificat. This is a print publication but can also be obtained in a digital format. It has many of the above prayers and includes reflections.
•USCCB (United States Conference of Catholic Bishops). They have access to the daily Mass readings
•Bishop Burbidge will be showing video of Sunday Mass. See the Arlington Diocese website
•EWTN. This is a Catholic cable station that shows Mass each day and has other religious programs

Spiritual Communion
•For a variety of reasons, it is not always possible to attend Mass and receive Holy Communion through no fault of a person. It does not replace going to Mass but covers circumstances like our current time.
•Many saints have undertaken this practice, and it is encouraged as a general practice in any situation. This can be prayed at any time of the day and in any place. As a devotion, it can be done every day, not just Sundays.
•"My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things, and I desire to receive you into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen."

Renewed Gratitude for Mass
•This period of time offers a chance to be thankful for the great gift of Mass. Under normal circumstances, Masses in our area are made abundantly available. We can grow, during this time, in gratitude for the gift of gathering around the Lord's altar.
•While attending Mass on Sundays is an obligation (under normal conditions), it is even more so a gift that we can appreciate more deeply, especially when Masses resume normally.

Reading Scripture
•In addition to the daily Mass readings, read passages from the Gospel about Jesus healing the sick. It was an extremely important part of His public ministry.
•The Gospel of Matthew is full of accounts where Jesus healed countless individuals.
•James 5:14-15

Rosary and Chaplet of Divine Mercy
•The rosary is a powerful prayer that can be prayed as individuals or in small groups.
—There is a strong tradition of praying to Mary for protection and help in grave times of need
•Chaplet of Divine Mercy
—https://www.ewtn.com/catholicism/devotions/chaplet-13364
•Other prayers for protection
—St. Michael the Archangel

Adoration Chapel Update

News from the Diocese

Bishop Burbidge has dispensed all the faithful of the Diocese from the obligation to attend Sunday Mass and holy days of obligation during this time.

Governor Northam's plan for Phase 3, allows for churches to operate still keeping in mind proper social distancing. This ability may vary from one parish to another.

Especially on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation, the faithful are encouraged to devote time to prayer, observe Mass on television or the internet, and pray the Rosary, along with other devotions.
