St. Theresa Catholic Church

21371 St. Theresa Lane, Ashburn, Virginia 20147

July 21, 2019 Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear Parishioners,

A lot of things have changed since I first came to the parish, seventeen years ago. One of those is the number of requests we get for weddings here at Saint Theresa. When I first came, we were "lucky" if we had one wedding a year. Now we receive numerous requests every week. I thought it might make sense to address how weddings are "booked" at Saint Theresa, for those who may have interest now -- or may so in the near future.

The diocese mandates a minimum six month preparation time -- of course, most couples like to "lock-in" a date a year or more in advance. (Most reception venues are booked well in advance of the six months we require.) Before we can officially place a couple on the calendar -- or reserve a date -- the priest or deacon needs to meet with the couple to assure that there is nothing standing in the way of a marriage in the Church. (A good example here is a prior marriage.)

Before meeting with the priest or deacon, a marriage preparation questionnaire should be filled out online and submitted. This questionnaire can be found at https://saintttheresaparish.com/sacraments/marriage/ Once we receive that questionnaire, I assign the preparations to myself or one of the other clergy and we set up an appointment to discuss the sacrament with the couple. The parish requires a deposit of $250 at the time of setting the date. (This deposit is refunded after the wedding, provided everything has been left in order.)

Weddings are scheduled at 11am and 2pm on Saturdays. We will also accommodate requests for Friday afternoons/evenings when we are able. We do not celebrate weddings on Sundays. In short, submit a completed questionnaire to the office as soon as possible to have the best chance of attaining the date and time of your choice. The secretary cannot reserve a date or even offer information about a particular date over the phone.

God bless you!

In order to register, come to the parish office Monday – Friday 9:30am – 3:30pm to fill out a registration card. Yellow registration cards can also be obtained at all of the Church entrances – these can be mailed to the parish or given to an usher during a church liturgy.
