A thought for when God seems distant…

How do we make sense of the distance of God? Recently I came across a dialogue from an unknown source in which a monk speaks to a saintly and wise abbot about God's distance. I believe this dialogue contains the answer we're searching for:

Speaking to the Master, the Monk said, "So what does one do about the distance?"
"Understand that it isn't there." Said the Master.
"Does that mean that God and I are one?" Asked the puzzled Monk.
"Not one. Not two." Said Father Abbot.
"How is that possible?" Replied the disciple.
And looking at him, the master replied:

"The sun and its light,
the ocean and the wave,
the singer and his song -
–not one….Not two."

There are two facts about God and His creation, simultaneously true—God is utterly above and totally beyond what he has created, and at the same time, He is profoundly, immediately, and intimately present to all he has made. The first fact is called God's transcendence; the second is called his imminence. Remember, both facts are equally true. This is a paradox, not a contradiction in terms.

How do we make sense of God's distance from us? Let's begin by recognizing it is a problem only of our perception, not of reality. God is not distant. He is more present to us than we are to ourselves. Distance is a human problem, not a divine one.

Just like the examples given by the saintly monk, so God is to us. I would stress that overcoming the "distance" begins with being aware that it is not there at all! It continues with every thought, word, prayer, and action done in the name of Christ. All these things lead to genuine spiritual growth.

Spiritual growth is the means to great peace, and it comes from being increasingly in touch with reality. And the reality is that God is profoundly, absolutely, and powerfully present to all that has being. And if He ever were to become "distant" in fact, we would cease to be altogether! God is being itself, and to have being is to be profoundly present to God. Cling tightly to that truth, and pray about it. I believe it will bring you peace. I know it has done so for me.

God bless you…and St. Theresa, pray for us!

Fr. Hudgins

Teaching on Mass attendance
•While extraordinary, perhaps a good way to think about not being able to attend Mass would be akin to someone being deployed in the military. Sometimes military service personnel do not have access to a Catholic Chaplain through no fault of their own and therefore cannot attend Mass.
•All parishioners are still being prayed for by parish priests at private Masses. Even though no one is allowed to presently attend, the Masses are still being offered and provide tremendous grace to everyone.

Continue to follow the Mass
•App on phone called ibreviary that has daily Mass readings, Mass prayers, and the Liturgy of the Hours —Liturgy of the Hours is the universal prayer of the Church offered throughout the world. These are prayers all priests and religious continue to offer each day.
—Anyone can say some or all of these prayers. There are five "hours" in the day. Office of Readings, Morning Prayer, Daytime Prayer (has three possible times, midmorning, midday, and midafternoon), Evening Prayer, and Night Prayer •Magnificat. This is a print publication but can also be obtained in a digital format. It has many of the above prayers and includes reflections.
•USCCB (United States Conference of Catholic Bishops). They have access to the daily Mass readings
•Bishop Burbidge will be showing video of Sunday Mass. See the Arlington Diocese website
•EWTN. This is a Catholic cable station that shows Mass each day and has other religious programs

Spiritual Communion
•For a variety of reasons, it is not always possible to attend Mass and receive Holy Communion through no fault of a person. It does not replace going to Mass but covers circumstances like our current time.
•Many saints have undertaken this practice, and it is encouraged as a general practice in any situation. This can be prayed at any time of the day and in any place. As a devotion, it can be done every day, not just Sundays.
•"My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things, and I desire to receive you into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen."

Plato says that when a society is about to go bad, we should look to the music first. That is because music fires the imagination and the passions, and these — not bare reason, not ideas — give man the energy to act. So too we should look to music in Catholic churches to see what has wandered far afield.
