St. Theresa Catholic Church

21371 St. Theresa Lane, Ashburn, Virginia 20147

August 26, 2018 Twenty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear Parishioners,

Tomorrow (Monday) morning, Saint Theresa School will open for our twenty-fifth first-day-of-school in our history. That's right, we're celebrating our twenty-fifth anniversary this year! I'm humbled to have been able to be a part of such a wonderful school community, and I congratulate all of you — because the school is only possible because of the dedication of the parishioners of Saint Theresa to Catholic education. I am grateful to all the teachers, staff, and families who have contributed so much to the success of Saint Theresa School throughout these years. We begin this year with a new principal "at the helm." I pray that God will bless Mrs. Erin O'Malley as she begins her ministry in Catholic education here.

Last Sunday, many of you heard me address the recent news on the horrendous scandals plaguing the Church here in the U.S. during my homily. We have heard both our Holy Father and Cardinal DiNardo of the USCCB express their outrage and sadness. Our own bishop has asked his brother priests to pray and fast in reparation for these atrocities. This is a time of sadness, doubt, and confusion for many Catholics. May we remember that our Lord stands with us through every trial. May he bring healing and peace where it is most needed.

Sincerely in Christ,
