August 27, 2020

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Over the past several months we have seen a great deal of unrest in communities throughout our nation. While many people have protested peacefully against injustice, others unfortunately have turned to violence, rioting, and even looting. Most Americans of course simply desire peace in their communities.

Although legal and legislative efforts are essential in establishing the justice that brings peace, we also recognize that they are not enough. In such circumstances, Our Lord recommends to us, his disciples, the ancient practices of prayer and fasting (cf. Mk 9:29).

As such, I and the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops invite you to join in observing Wednesday, September 9, 2020 as a day of prayer and fasting for peace in our communities. That day is the Memorial of Saint Peter Claver, whose ministry to the African slaves brought to the new world serves as a great example of how to bring the peace of Christ to others.

Be assured of my continued prayers for each of you. May Our Lord Jesus bless you and keep you in His care.

Sincerely in Christ,

Michael F. Burbidge

Most Reverend Michael F. Burbidge
Bishop of Arlington

Saint Peter Claver (1581-1654)
Nearly two hundred years before the Declaration of Independence proclaimed "that all men are created equal," two hundred fifty years before the Emancipation Proclamation mandated an end to slavery, three hundred fifty years before Martin Luther King's "I Have a Dream," and four hundred years before the election of an American president boasting African heritage, Peter Claver left his native Spain behind to volunteer for the Jesuit missions in Colombia. There, he was horrified both by slavery as an institution and by the inhuman brutality inflicted upon the slaves. He solemnly vowed to become "the slave of the slaves," and lived that vow heroically for close to forty years. Not knowing their language, Peter began his ministry among the slaves by using the universal language of practical charity, providing medical care and a tangible though wordless assertion of their human dignity: "We spoke to them not with words but with our hands, kneeling beside them, bathing their faces and bodies, encouraging them with friendly gestures" (see Liturgy of the Hours, Volume 4, p. 2018). Then came evangelization and baptism. Holiness as human wholeness: Peter Claver's enduring witness.

Music & The Corruption of Catholicism
Anthony Esolen, Ph.D., Tues, Sept 15
Pre-class Discussion, 7:30pm
Lecture, 8-9pm
Live Webinar: Register at www.InstituteofCatholicCulture.org/events

Plato says that when a society is about to go bad, we should look to the music first. That is because music fires the imagination and the passions, and these — not bare reason, not ideas — give man the energy to act. So too we should look to music in Catholic churches to see what has wandered far afield.

Catholic Yoga? Centering Prayer & Other Eastern Practices

Local: St. Agnes Church Hall, 1910 N Randolph Street, Arlington, VA. If circumstances allow.

WHY IS IT
A man wakes up after sleeping under an ADVERTISED blanket on an ADVERTISED mattress and pulls off ADVERTISED pajamas bathes in an ADVERTISED shower shaves with an ADVERTISED razor brushes his teeth
with ADVERTISED toothpaste
washes with ADVERTISED soap puts on ADVERTISED clothes drinks a cup of ADVERTISED coffee
drives to work in an ADVERTISED car and then . . . .
refuses to ADVERTISE
believing it doesn't pay.
Later if business is poor
he ADVERTISES it for sale.
