St. Theresa Catholic Church

21371 St. Theresa Lane, Ashburn, Virginia 20147

September 29, 2019 Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear Parishioners,

I write to you from Jerusalem, having just offered Mass in the Church of All Nations. By the time you read this, we will be back home. On behalf of my fellow pilgrims, I thank you for your prayerful support. Know that your intentions were remembered in our prayers at Mass and our daily recitation of the rosary.

This week we celebrate the feast day of our parish patroness, Saint Theresa. As has been our tradition, a copy of our annual report sent to the diocese is included to show you the financial status of the parish. I will share some sacramental statistics with you in the weeks ahead. Bottom line: we are financially "healthy." As I announced a few weeks ago, our mortgage on the church, parking lot, and administrative wing is all paid off. We are currently working on our rectory project which I am told will be completed sometime this winter. I am grateful to all of you who make the sacrifices to support the parish in a meaningful way.

I hope to see many of you at our parish picnic today (Sunday). The weather forecast at this point looks like a hot one — but at least partly sunny. Join me in congratulating the men and women received into the Church this Saturday. May God bless them in their faith journey! A new session of RCIA begins this Wednesday evening. Invite someone you know to join us in learning more about the Catholic Faith.

Sincerely in Christ, Fr Guest
