St. Theresa Catholic Church

21371 St. Theresa Lane, Ashburn, Virginia 20147

November 10, 2019 Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear Parishioners,

As announced at Masses last weekend, this is Father Willard's final week with us. We were informed by the chancery that Father is being reassigned to Saint Raymond of Penafort parish in Springfield, effective November 14th. I know that many of you join me in thanking Father for his service here at Saint Theresa for the past two plus years. As you know, Saint Theresa was Father's first assignment and I can tell you that a priest's first assignment always holds a special place in his heart. Let us keep Father in our prayers as we wish him Godspeed as he moves on to his new assignment. If you are able, please join us in a farewell reception for Father following the 12:30pm Mass today.

Father Paul Dudzinski will be joining us beginning next weekend. Father has been assigned most recently to Saint Louis parish in Alexandria, Virginia. Father has a PhD in philosophy from the Catholic University of America. Like myself, Father did his seminary studies at Mount Saint Mary's Seminary in Emmitsburg, MD. He was ordained by Bishop Keating for the diocese in 1986. I know that you will do your best to make Father feel most welcome here at Saint Theresa Parish.

As a reminder -- our parish will celebrate the Tenth Anniversary of the Dedication of our Church at the 5:00pm Mass this evening. It seems hard to believe that ten years have passed since the day we first opened our doors. I know that it was the culmination of many years of hard work, sacrifice, and prayers of so many good people that made the event possible. A church anniversary is a perfect time to remember the significance of the parish church in our lives -- and rededicate ourselves to always treating God's house with the reverence and respect it deserves. And one final reminder: tomorrow -- Veteran's Day -- our parish school will host a special Mass at 8:30am to honor our veteran's. All are welcome!

Sincerely in Christ, Fr. Guest
