How Late Can I Arrive at Mass?

By a rough estimate, about one-third of St. Theresa parishioners arrive at Mass after the Mass has started. Most of these arrive late habitually—that is to say, they have never seen the beginning of Mass because they arrive late every time they attend. So, here's a question I've been asked more times than I can remember, "How late can a Catholic arrive at Mass and still have it 'count' for his Sunday Mass obligation?" There are a lot of proposed answers to this question...

- If you missed the readings, you've missed Mass!
- So long as you hear at least part of the Gospel, you're ok.
- Arrive before the offertory, and the preparation of the altar. After that, too late!
- You only need to be there for the Eucharist. Just arrive before the consecration.

But here's the fact of the matter—there is no definitive Church teaching on this issue. There has never been a magisterial document or papal pronouncement that draws a spiritual line through the Mass which reads, "Do not cross, under pain of mortal sin." Upon reading these words, no doubt hundreds of parishioners will heave a collective sigh of relief, and conclude that God has blessed their perpetual tardiness and encouraged them to continue in it. But they would be gravely mistaken. Let's consider why. I heard the following idea from a priest in Houston:

Imagine going to a movie and asking yourself, "How late can I arrive at this movie and still say I watched it?" Or, "I wonder—how late could someone walk into this movie and still get the basic point of the story?" No one would think in such a way, least of all the people who produced the movie for you. Every movie is written, filmed, and painstakingly edited to be a coherent whole. When they made the movie for you, they assumed that you would see the whole thing, from the very beginning to the very end.

Now consider who made the Mass for you. God himself gave us the Mass. It began in the upper room when Jesus Christ celebrated the Last Supper with the twelve apostles, and it was completed the moment that Jesus died on the cross. The Mass is the culmination of the entire life of Christ, and the greatest outpouring of God's love in all of human history. Did Jesus really do all that and then ask, "How little of this do people really need to come to?"

"How late can I arrive at Mass?" Can you see that the biggest problem here is the very question itself? We can't love someone, and at the same time, try to give them the least we possibly can. "Well, at least I'm here," some people will say. The problem is in the word, "least." God doesn't deserve your least. God deserves your best! Do emergencies and unavoidable delays come up? Do traffic lights turn red at the worst possible moment? Of course they do. But those are exceptions, not the weekly norm. Honestly, we should aim to arrive at Mass a little bit early. It takes a moment to quiet down your heart after rushing across town, doesn't it?

And so, no—the Church does not have an official teaching on how late you can be to Mass. I am grateful they do not, because it's asking the wrong question. The Mass is the very heart of Jesus Christ, and he wants to give it to you, whole and complete. God's love can't be divided up into fractions and bits. Neither can our attendance at Mass.

God bless you...and St. Theresa, pray for us!

(Practicing) Catholic – Recognize God in your Ordinary Moments By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Mini reflection: Too often, life falls short of my expectations — an opportunity didn't work out, a day didn't go the way I planned — so I ball up my fists and stomp my feet. And God takes the Book of the Gospels and opens it to Luke, Chapter 10.

Save the Date: Fall Consignment sale Sept 27th. For more information go to www.littleflowerconsignments.org. Proceeds help families in need through Divine Mercy Outreach. Don't want to consign but have items to donate? Contact Jean Nowakowski at john.jean90@verizon.net

New bedding & pillows needed—Our Bed Ministry has ongoing requests to help families moving from the shelter. We are in need of Twin XL bedding. Consider donating new twin XL size bedding in a bag. (Comforter, sheets and pillow case). Drop off to the parish office or place in the Outreach boxes at church. New bed pillows needed as well. Or consider donating an Amazon or Walmart gift card to help us purchase the needed items. Thank you and God bless you.

Did you know? 99 percent of the funds you donate go directly to families in need! Your donation makes a difference in the lives of struggling families by preventing evictions and keeping utilities on! We assist struggling veterans, individuals and families due to domestic violence, disabilities, layoffs, medical issues and unforeseen circumstances. The families are so grateful!

Donations accepted online, or by mail or dropping off to the parish office. Please indicate DMO in the memo of the check or on the envelope. To donate online go to the parish website <http://www.sainttheresaparish.com> and click on "Donate" tab to make a monetary donation online! Thank you for helping us to bring Christ's love to others by helping them in their time of need.

Friends in Need—Provides meals on a short-term basis for those families or individuals in the parish who are unable to cook for themselves due to arrival of a new baby, illness or a medical situation in the immediate family...Contact Emily Wilsey at emwilsey@aol.com or 703-585-5435 to volunteer to make meals or if you or a loved one need of help with meals.

The Visitation Ministry —Are you HOMEBOUND? We have wonderful parishioners who would love to visit you or if you are not comfortable with a home visit at this time, they will call you! If you need help with an errand or would like someone to pray with you, let us know. If you are looking to volunteer, please contact us as well. Claudia Lewis at 703-431-8670 or email her at clewis825@gmail.com.

Bed Ministry—Volunteer for the Bed Ministry—volunteers with trucks or Large SUVs needed especially! We have had an increase in bed requests.

It's rewarding to assist families in need. We need extra helpers to bring new beds and bedding from our storage to families moving out of the shelters and other families and children in need.

Interested in helping contact Bea Craig at 571.439.0364 or beds@sainttheresaparish.com

Do you have furniture items to donate?— Consider donating to help families in need that are moving out of the shelter. Your donation makes a difference. We partner with McLean Bible church to assist families coming out of the shelter. Contact Matthew Broderick at 703-966-0791 or mebroderick1@gmail.com

Looking for more ways help? Consider signing up to receive our Outreach email to get up to date information on needs and volunteer opportunities. If you would like to sign up to be placed on our Outreach email you will learn about what we do and how you can become more involved in touching the lives of families who are struggling.
