Fighting the Good Fight

The Diocese of Arlington has three exorcists, but their identities are kept secret to spare them any unnecessary attention. On one occasion however, I had a fascinating conversation with one of our exorcists. He told me that the hardest thing about the deliverance of the evil spirit from a soul is that the devil, "...always fights dirty. Everything the evil spirit says is a lie." Christ our Lord told us this, of course. He said of Satan that "there is no truth in him, and lying is his native speech." (John 8:44)

We might never have to fight the power of evil directly, as an exorcist does, but in our daily struggle to follow Christ, we constantly confront evil indirectly in our own sins, weaknesses, attachments, and brokenness, not to mention those of others. We can be strongly tempted to "fight dirty" so to speak—to resort to lies, name-calling, stereotyping, or other tactics—justifying such tactics to ourselves that we're doing everything for a "good purpose." We must remember that Christians carry a heavy but necessary burden: we may never do evil in the hope that good may come of it. One of the hardest things about fighting on God's side is that we can never fight with devil's tactics. In everything we say and do, we must fight only with truth, mercy, kindness, patience, and forgiveness. It can be very tempting to fight dirty—to give into anger, mockery, cynicism, accusation, lies and half-truths—but the moment we do so, we surrender the fight.

It's easy to become discouraged. We wish God almighty would strike decisively, and destroy evil once and for all. Be careful, thinking that way. The powers of the secular world try to destroy whatever stands in the way of what they call "progress," but God's power is different. God fights only with the power of the cross, and asks his followers to do the same.

Jesus said, "whoever would be my disciple, let him renounce himself, take up his cross, and follow me." (Matt 16:24) The cross appeared to be the greatest defeat, and yet it became the greatest victory. What we must remember in our struggle is that the cross always conquers. What we need to renew the world are just a few souls who believe in that power, and act accordingly. You're dismayed by the power of evil in the world, in your life, and perhaps in your home. You feel powerless, and sometimes teeter on the edge between despair and apathy. Please remember that no prayer goes unheard, and that no suffering offered to God is without fruit. God does not lose battles, and he will never abandon those who are his own.

God bless you...and St. Theresa, pray for us!

Fr. Hudgins

How to Register to be a Parishioner of St. Theresa Catholic Church

In the sacramental life of the Church, Catholic faithful will need to prove residency in a parish. Registration with the parish office allows us to track your sacramental data and keep you connected with the life of the church.

In order to register, come to the parish office Monday – Friday 9:30am – 3:30pm (closed for lunch from 12-1) to fill out a registration card. Yellow registration cards can also be obtained at all of the Church entrances – these can be mailed to the parish or given to an usher during a church liturgy.
